Please join us on select Mondays this Winter term for a series of exciting talks by faculty, affiliates, and guests of the School of Psychological Science at OSU. These colloquia offer an informal venue to discuss completed and ongoing research of broad interest. If you have any questions or would like to present your own research in a future term, please contact Dr. Anita Cservenka (anita.cservenka@oregonstate.edu) or Dr. Kristen Macuga (kristen.macuga@oregonstate.edu).
